ISHANGI DANCERS, DRUMMERS AND SINGERS

JULY 13

NOON

Bringing to life the culture of the African continent through the emotive music of generations, The Ishangi Family teaches and entertains in an exciting presentation of music and dance guaranteed to energize and motivate. The beating of a drum forms the foundation for a variety of masquerades and a spectacular stilt dance!

RAGS, BAGS AND DRAGONS

AUGUST 3

NOON

He is an Emmy award winning puppeteer who creates his characters from every-day objects like paper bags, newspaper and shoe boxes. An entertaining trip through a fantasy world made real by the sheer fun of participation.

JOURNEY INTO JAZZ

JULY 20

NOON

A Journey Into Jazz with brothers Mark and Gary Blackman explores the roots and development of America's classical music. The warm simmer of bebop to the soaring improvisations of modern jazz are explored and presented in a delightful program for all ages.

TRINIDAD SERENADERS STEEL BAND

AUGUST 10

NOON

The beauty and elegance of the simple steel drum. A sound sweet as tropical fruit and refreshing as an ocean breeze. Get swept away to the sandy beaches and carnival atmosphere of the Caribbean where hot is cool and the island Music sways you like a wind blown palm.

GALLMAN'S NEWARK DANCE THEATRE

JULY 27

NOON

They have been called "high voltage performers". Their roots are in Newark, but the spirit of the dance is international. Alfred Gallman's acclaimed troupe of dancers bring their fiery brand of modern dance back home.
